

Simon of Eden?

DIRECTIONS→ Respond to the following prompt in no less than a full page of writing.

Base on our reading today and the big ideas we've identified in the text so far, why does Golding associate Simon so closely with the island and nature? What is he trying to communicate to us about Simon's character? Be sure to use relevant and specific information from the text to support your ideas.

[illegible]

